

Jan 15, 2012

When God Chose Sandals:

I Don't Know . . . Yes You Do

Mark 11:27-12:12

Receptive hearts are necessary for fruitful work!

1. An unreceptive heart is committed to _____ (27-33)

A. We are blind to instruction when we are committed to _____ (27-28)

B. We are blind to instruction when we love to give _____ (28)

C. We are blind to instruction when we are more concerned about _____ rather than _____. (29-33)

The Result:

2. A receptive heart is committed to _____ (12:1-12)

The parable:

Owner of the vineyard:

Vineyard:

Tenants:

Servants:

Beloved Son:

A. We bear fruit for _____ (1-2)

B. Look deeper at events to see _____ (2-8)

C. God will _____ and _____ unfruitful tenants. (9,12)

D. God will _____. (10-11)

Equipping – Memorization:
Mark 12:10-11 Have you not read this Scripture: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; <sup>11</sup> this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?